Nixon Keeps Quemoy-Matsu Issue Alive

White House Says Ike, Vice President Agree on Islands

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon kept Quemoy and Matsu alive as a campaign issue today as he sought again to puncture Democratic strength in New England.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press chief, said the Republican presidential candidate will have more to say about the status of the offshore China islands in campaign appearances here and in other Connecticut cities on which Sen. John F. Kennedy counts heavily for Democratic votes in November.

Kennedy repeated Sunday night that his stand on the defense of Quemoy and Matsu apparently jibes with that of the Eisenhower administration. And he said he is prepared to drop the islands from the campaign.

While Nixon himself weighed possible approaches to success in the last three weeks of the contest, Klein had this to say on the vice president's behalf:

"Until the senator clarifies his position, whether he is still in favor of surrendering the islands, we will feel it is incumbent upon us to discuss Sen. Kennedy's own stated views.

"If Sen. Kennedy now chooses to say that he no longer is in favor of surrendering the islands, I think it will be for the good of the country."

The White House Saturday declared President Eisenhower and Nixon are in agreement on the little islands a few miles off the coast of Communist China; that they should be defended against aggression that is ultimately pointed toward the Formosa stronghold of Nationalist China.

In the second of their televised debates, Nixon had said Quemoy and Matsu must be protected as segments of "the area of freedom." Kennedy had said they should not be abandoned under the muzzle of Communist guns, but he termed them indefensible and called for a clearly drawn line of defense around Formosa.

Nixon met Sunday with former U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, his vice presidential running mate, and other GOP leaders to map out the conclusive last three weeks of the campaign.

Nixon and Lodge emerged in expressed agreement on the question of a Negro in the cabinet, a matter on which Lodge had spoken favorably in New York last week.

Menon Introduces Measure In U.N.

15 Nations Push Peace Resolution

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Fifteen countries on five continents pushed a resolution today to calm things down in the U.N. General Assembly after the stormy visit of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Indian Defense Minister V.K. Krishna Menon planned to introduce the resolution formally in a one-hour speech ending the general policy debate in the 99-nation assembly.

The resolution would have the assembly call for full cooperation with the United Nations, ask all countries to refrain from actions likely to aggravate international tensions and urge that immediate steps be taken to solve world problems.

It speaks of a deterioration in international relations "both in the General Assembly and in the world" and says there is a need to arrest this trend because peace is threatened.

There was a possibility that the assembly would begin debating the resolution this afternoon, after a speech by visiting King Frederik IX of Denmark.

Sponsors of the resolution are Austria, Bolivia, Burma, Ecuador, Finland, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Mexico, Morocco, Panama, Tunisia, the United Arab Republic, Venezuela and Yugoslavia.

The idea for the resolution was Menon's. A source said it came to him when President Sekou Toure of Guinea addressed the assembly Thursday.

Was China, Glass Ware Dealer for Years

George H. Bowman, 91, Dies of Complications

George H. Bowman, retired veteran retailer and wholesaler of china and glassware, died of complications Sunday at 8:30 a.m. at his home, 430 Highland Ave.

He was 91. Born in Cleveland Dec. 30, 1868, he was the son of Israel T. and Harriet Stillman Bowman.

On Oct. 2, 1907, he married Mary Augusta Brooks, who died June 9, 1959.

Mr. Bowman, who operated the Bowman Glass Company here for nearly 28 years, operated a china store on Euclid Ave. in Cleveland before he moved to Salem. His store was a popular place with countless women throughout north-eastern Ohio who sought special china and glassware.

He operated the Bowman company in Salem in a building at the rear of the Fiesta Shop, which his daughter, Miss Mary A. Bowman, operates successfully today. In earlier years the glass and china firm had headquarters in a large house that stood on the site of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Bowman had a crew of salesmen on the road, traveling throughout eastern and mid-western Ohio. He had been in the china business ever since his graduation from Western Reserve University in the 1890's.

His wife, the former Mary Augusta Brooks, was the daughter of J. Twing Brooks of Salem, one of the early vice presidents of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. Bowman, who did not retire from active business life until about 8 years ago, was a member of the Church of Our Saviour.

Survivors include a son, Atty. George H. Bowman Jr. and his daughter, Miss Mary Bowman of Salem; a brother, Edgar S. Bowman of Los Angeles, Calif.; three grandchildren, Judith, Constance and George H. Bowman III.

A son, Brooks Bowman, was killed in an automobile accident.

Wesley Murphy, 534 W. 6th St., reported to police that a trailer hitched to his car had been stolen. Included in contents of the trailer were two tarpaulins, three electric motors and a pair of "I" beams.

Murphy told police the theft occurred between 10 p.m. Saturday and 9:50 a.m. Sunday, when he discovered the loss. Murphy said he had parked his car in the garage, leaving the trailer hitched on.

The industrious thief or thieves also took the trailer's hitch, probably so they could hook the loot on their own vehicle.

Firemen Called Out To 3 Minor Blazes

City firemen were called to three minor fires Sunday.

Firemen answered a call at 2:46 p.m. to 182 Washington Ave., where they quelled a blaze of burning leaves. Later in the afternoon, at 4:45, they extinguished a grass fire at 768 Newgarden Ave.

The final call was at 10:55 p.m. to a rubbish fire on S. Lundy Ave. in Hillsdale. The fire was out when firemen arrived.

Eisenhower Takes Off on 6-State Tour

Journey Called Non-Political, But GOP Hopes Go Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower took off by plane today on a 6,728-mile speaking tour that will take him into six states, including some major battleground areas of the presidential campaign.

The President and a small party left Andrews Air Force Base, near Washington, in a Boeing jet operated by the Military Air Transport Service.

The White House is calling the trip nonpolitical, but many backers of the Republican presidential ticket obviously hope the tour will reap dividends for its standard bearers Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Eisenhower's trip also will take him into Mexico.

The main event on the President's Detroit calendar is a major address tonight at the 43rd National Automobile Show dinner.

In that address and the others he will make on this tour, Eisenhower, unless plans change, will make no direct plugs for the GOP ticket. But he is almost certain to talk of the record of his administration and his philosophy of government, and Republican strategists are hoping that this plus the President's personal popularity, will pay off at the polls next month.

Eisenhower will remain overnight in Detroit and fly on Tuesday morning to Red Wing, Minn., for a speech dedicating the Hiawatha Bridge over the Mississippi River.

The President will travel to his boyhood hometown, Abilene, Kan., for a brief visit at the new Eisenhower Library and a stop at the grave of his mother and father. He is due in Denver late Tuesday afternoon and will remain there visiting old Colorado.

Russia Expels U.S. Tourist For 'Spying'

MOSCOW (AP)—An American tourist expelled from the Soviet Union was convicted of spying.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the tourist, Mark I. Kaminsky, 26, a teacher from Jefferson Township, Mich., was sentenced to seven years imprisonment but was expelled after he pleaded for clemency and showed "sincere repentance."

The report said Kaminsky confessed before the military tribunal that he had collected intelligence information.

It specified that Kaminsky photographed military installations and carried a notebook containing "coded notes about the location of an artillery base, radar installations and a military airfield."

Kaminsky had entered the Soviet Union last July 27 by automobile with another American tourist, Harvey C. Bennett, 26, of Tracy, Calif. About three weeks later they disappeared. Nothing further was heard of them until the U.S. State Department announced last Friday that they had been expelled for being in a forbidden area.

The two were said to have been ousted at the Soviet-Czechoslovak border town of Uzhgorod. So far they have made no contact with U.S. embassies on the western side of the Iron Curtain.

Senator Appears Gaining In Big States

Kennedy, Nixon About Even In Race For Presidency, AP Survey Shows

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic John F. Kennedy apparently has pulled almost even with Republican Richard M. Nixon as they spring toward the finish in their hectic race for the presidency.

But a new Associated Press survey indicates that—with election day only three weeks ahead—neither candidate has been able to grasp a clear advantage in 17 states numbering nearly half of the 536 electoral votes.

It is among this undecided group that the winner likely will be decided. He will need 269 electoral votes.

This latest AP checkover of the political situation in all 50 states gave some evidence that Sen. Kennedy might be gaining an edge in some of the big doubtful states—like New York (45), Pennsylvania (32), California (32), and Michigan (20).

At the same time, some of the states in this group seemed to be trending toward Vice President Nixon—Minnesota (11), Utah (4) and New Mexico (4).

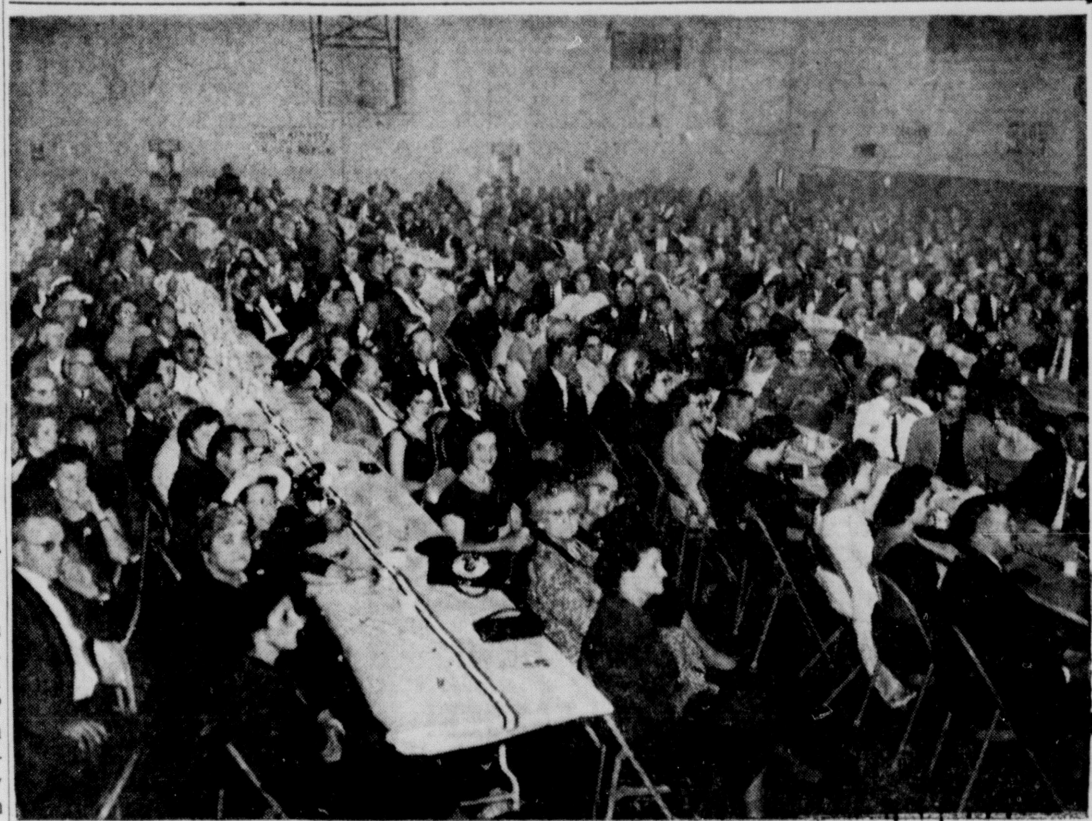

And in a number of states credited either to Kennedy or Nixon, it was possible the balance might tip the other way before voting time.

The survey indicates: Nixon is ahead in 19 states with 141 electoral votes. Kennedy is credited with the lead in 14 states with 129 electoral votes. In a few Southern states, a scattering of Democratic electors might not vote for Kennedy even if he won their states.

The 17 states rated as tossups account for 267 electoral votes—close to enough to elect a president by themselves.

In the previous survey two weeks ago, Nixon was regarded as out front in 22 states with 161 electoral votes; Kennedy as lead-

2 More Americans Executed In Cuba

Another Held, Will Learn Fate Today

Castro Claims Band Planned to Provoke Guantanamo Incident

HAVANA (AP)—A Cuban firing squad Sunday executed two more Americans from the small invasion force that Fidel Castro charged was part of a U.S. plot to provoke an incident at Guantanamo Naval Base.

The prime minister directly linked the 27-man expeditionary force that landed on Cuba's north-east coast Oct. 15 with mounting tension over the big naval base the United States holds on the island by treaty.

Castro said on television that the small band intended to create the pretext for U.S. intervention in Cuba by trying to form a "zone of operations and zone of perturbation" near the base.

The United States formally charged before the United Nations last Friday that Castro himself appeared bent on provoking an incident over the base.

Firing squad bullets just before dawn cut down a Louisiana adventurer and a former U.S. Marine seeking to avenge the Castro government's seizure of his father's Cuban plantation.

The two Americans were: Allan Dale Thompson, 36, a native of Queen City, Tex., who grew up in Mooringsport, La., and worked in fishing camps in that area.

Robert O. Fuller, 25, whose father moved to Miami, Fla., after confiscation of his property in Cuba.

Another American who landed with them, Anthony Zarba, 27, of Somerville, Mass., was executed with seven Cuban insurgents at the same firing range in San Juan Valley last Thursday.

A fourth American, Leslie Bradley, formerly of Minneapolis, learns his fate today when a military tribunal hands down its verdict after a two-day trial. Bradley and 12 others were charged with plotting a fake invasion of Nicaragua from Cuba to embarrass Castro. The Cuban Prime Minister said the plot was with U.S. State Department cooperation. Bradley faces a 16 years prison term if convicted. The others on trial with him are a Dominican, a Nicaraguan and 10 Cubans.

A prediction of more invasions against the Castro regime came from Fuller's grieving father, William, in Miami, Fla.

"There'll be other expeditions," Fuller told newsmen. Some may fail, but sooner or later the Castro regime may fail.

The younger Fuller, who served with the U.S. Marine in Korea, testified at his trial in Santiago that peasants had aided the invaders.

The court rejected appeals for

L. H. Taylor, Deming Official, Dies At 61

Leland H. Taylor, 61, of 555 N. Union Ave., advertising manager at the Deming Co. for 31 years, died suddenly of a cerebral hemorrhage Saturday at 7:15 p.m. in the Central Clinic.

Born in Berlin, Conn., June 22, 1899, he was a son of William and Mary Gay Taylor.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church and a past president of the Youngstown Advertising Club.

He is survived by his wife, Flora Welton Taylor, whom he married May 28, 1927, in Cleveland; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Kinney Loomis of Newton Falls, a sister, Mrs. John DeWolfe of Plainville, Conn. and seven grandchildren.

Service will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Stark Memorial with Rev. R. J. Hunter officiating.

Interment will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call this afternoon and evening at the Memorial.

Trustees Named, Resolutions Adopted

Willard Cope of Salem RD 3, and Allan Chamberlain, Leetonia RD 2, were elected delegates to represent the Columbiana County Farm Bureau at the state annual meeting in November 1961 when 225 county members and guests met Saturday night at the Winona Methodist Church.

Six trustees were elected and will serve two-year periods. They are: Willard Cope, Salem, RD 3, Butler Twp.; Ike Skeels, Lisbon RD 4, Salem; William B. Grossen, New Waterford RD 2, Unity; Marion Sanor, East Rochester RD 1, West; Frank Murray, Lisbon RD 4, Center; Walter Johnson, Negley RD 1, St. Clair and Liverpool, and Frank McKarns, 942 N. Market St., Lisbon, Franklin and Wayne.

Elected women trustees were Mrs. Clyde Farmer, Salem RD 2, Knox, Butler, Perry and Salem; Mrs. James Hogue, Salineville RD 1, Yellow Creek, Liverpool, Washington, St. Clair and Madison Townships.

Four local resolutions, 19 state and five national were accepted by the group to forward to the state convention Nov. 9-10-11 to which Galen Greenstein of Salem RD 3 and Mrs. Florence Sidwell will be the delegates.

Mrs. Sidwell read the minutes, and Mrs. Evelyn Hoopes of Beloit RD reported on the nominating committee. Policy development committee report was read by Alan Chamberlain, and Greenstein gave the financial and business report. G. V. Weinstein of Lisbon gave the insurance report and Ed Lowmiller, Minerva RD, gave the coop report.

William Swank, associate director of field services of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, was the guest speaker.

Entertainment was furnished by Miss Shirley Howells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howells of RD 5, Salem, was crowned homecoming queen Saturday during the Greenford-Springfield football game.

She was crowned by last year's queen, Miss Susan Jones, a freshman at Youngstown University. Kathleen Pleus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pleus, was also a candidate for the honor.

The court consisted of Carolé Batiski, junior attendant; Nancy Miller, sophomore; and Kaye Benett, freshman.

Springfield won the game 23-6.

850 Hear Senator at County Rally

Kefauver Tells Dems New Leadership Needed

America needs new national leadership to solve the twin problems of technological unemployment and spotty economic recession, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee told a crowd of 850 at a Columbiana County Democratic dinner Saturday night at Beaver Local High School.

The lanky, drawing Democrat declared that the Eisenhower administration has done nothing to "assist in the economic revival of the depressed areas" in Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois and New England.

He urged the election of Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic Presidential nominee, and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, his running mate, "to handle the un-met challenges" he declared the Republican administration has ignored.

Sen. Kefauver also praised Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, who is seeking a seventh term as 18th Ohio District congressman.

"He is one of the few congressmen out of the total of 435 who has earned the reputation of statesman," Kefauver declared.

Other "un-met challenges" which the Tennessee senator listed were: Disarmament, constructive steps toward assuring peace, inflation, medical care for the aged and school construction.

He said he believes the people of Eastern Ohio "are particularly worried by the un-met challenge of full or near-full employment."

"Considerable attention has been given to the problem of economic growth in the present political campaign," Kefauver said. "Too little has been given to the reverse side of this coin the problem of economic recession and particularly to the problem of depressed areas."

Cities in the upper Ohio Valley within a 50-mile radius of East Liverpool are "existing on the edge of economic oblivion," the senator charged.

"For the last 8 years, the Republican administration has ignored this problem," he asserted. "They chose to be oblivious of the fact that there are today almost 4½ million unemployed—2 million more than when they came to power."

Sen. Kefauver charged that Democrats in Congress passed two bills to aid distressed areas "but both were buried by White House vetoes."

"These programs would have established a revolving loan fund to assist private industry in the modernization of plants and would

Tidal Wave, Storm Kill 3,000

Cyclone Rips Coast Of East Pakistan

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP)—Winds of more than 150 miles an hour and a tremendous tidal wave have killed more than 3,000 people along the coast of East Pakistan. Approximately 80 per cent of the surviving population in the area was left homeless by destruction of 30,000 homes.

The storm struck last Monday, doing most of its damage to six small offshore islands in the Bay of Bengal. They, like most of the rest of East Pakistan, are extremely primitive.

Communications with the outside world were cut. Not until Sunday, when government officials produced their report after an on-the-spot investigation, was the estimate of the dead made. It is feared that the correct figure may turn out to be higher.

Hundreds of bodies were believed washed out to sea when the tidal wave receded. A complete total of those killed may never be possible.

Such killer storms are common in this part of the world. Nearly 500 persons were killed in the same area by one in the fall of 1958.

Here they are called cyclones. In the Pacific they are known as typhoons; in the Atlantic, as hurricanes. No matter what the name, their chief devastating characteristic is the high-speed winds that boil up the sea and smash it against shores.

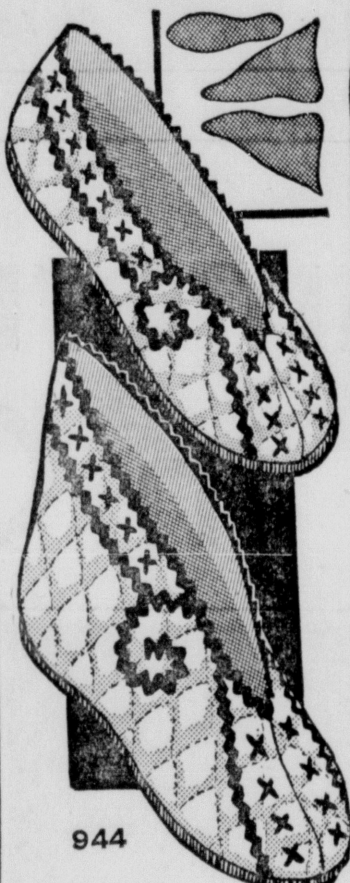

The tidal wave was the worst in memory.

Some villages were left a mass of mud, uprooted trees and destroyed houses. On the mainland, crops—mostly rice—were flattened.

Khrushchev Isn't That Crazy

The most dangerous thing our side in the battle for men's minds can do now is believe Premier Khrushchev failed to do what he came to the United Nations General Assembly to do just because he didn't win his debates.

Debates are not Khrushchev's dish. Shouting contests are to his liking. Ranting and raving are what he does best. He did not come to the General Assembly to take part in polite debates.

It is reasonable to believe he came to create a certain impression and that everything he has done has been for that purpose. The Soviet Union's bumptious premier can be crude. He can be funny. He can be ominous and he can be obstreperous. But no one ever has thought of him as stupid.

Moreover, no one in recent years ever has thought of the crowd behind him as stupid. The Communist masters of Russia are under ceaseless criticism. They do many things that bring censure against them. They quarrel among themselves. But as governments go, they have far more skill and homogeneity than ordinary. To think of them as being less than topnotch in propaganda would be as foolhardy as to think of the government of Britain as less than the world's best in diplomacy.

KHRUSHCHEV came to New York to do something, and it must be assumed he has been doing it systematically day by day, with the exact effect he had in mind all the time. It must be assumed, also, that this has been done to the satisfaction of his overseers in the Kremlin, who otherwise would have changed his orders.

What, then, does it seem likely that Khrushchev has accomplished so far with his ranting, raving and all-around impression of being a bull in a diplomatic china shop?

He has obliterated the last trace of co-existence.

He has jangled the nerves of the world with the threat to start a war.

He has advertised for the benefit of every impressionable new government and the new leaders of all the new governments that a line has been drawn, with everybody who isn't with the Soviet Union obliged to take the consequences of being on the wrong side of the line.

There are to be no more nations hovering like wraiths between the forces of freedom and the forces of Communism, playing one against the other.

FROM NOW ON, governments that are not for one or the other must huddle under the banner of neutrality, signifying that their neutrality will oblige them to be opposed to all non-Communist governments, though if they opposed the Soviet Union that would mean they were not neutral any more.

Nikita Khrushchev came to the United Nations General Assembly to make a point. He came to the United States to tell the world something he and his sponsors in the Kremlin wanted the world to know.

The message has come through loud and clear. All nations must be either for Russia or against Russia. There is no co-existence any more. There is no more hope of live and let live. The Russian Bear has quit pretending he has a hidden better nature that can be appealed to.

That's what Premier Khrushchev seems to have been trying to put across, and surely no man could have worked that hard to make an accidental impression.

Nixon's Voice of Experience

If Vice President Nixon's experience in national administration had shown up nowhere else, even Democrats trying to demolish the experience claim in his campaign would have to admit it has influenced his campaigning.

Unlike his opponent, who is leaning heavily on the conventional weapons of past political wars, the vice president knows enough from his experience to stay clear of the two-edged sword of promises he can't keep.

Sen. Kennedy, on the other hand, is swinging away recklessly. He has a promise for everybody. He will clear up the problems of foreign policy, dissolve the inventory lump that has held down employment in the steel industry, take care of the chronically jobless as well as the temporary jobless, make everything move faster and kiss away all hurts and grievances if only the voters will put him in the White House.

The question is whether he can convince enough people that America is at the brink of disaster to win a mandate to rescue them. This promising a Utopian future by putting an end to the present is sound politics when enough people are dissatisfied. Politicians who promise gold nuggets, however, run the risk of angry public reaction if their nuggets turn out to be bird seed.

Mr. Nixon knows better than to risk it. He has been too close to too many problems in federal administration the last 7½ years make the mistake of talking about cure-alls. He hasn't even inked a cut in taxes, which is the cream of all the political bird seed. Nor has he hinted at a balanced budget if elected.

His sense of responsibility is so deeply ingrained that he acknowledges what many office-seekers never admit even to themselves—that there is no way short of outright revolution or irresponsible administration to create the illusion of sudden change in government.

The day after Election Day will be a day like all other days. Nothing will be substantially different from the way it was the day before Election Day. But if a winning candidate promises to do things he cannot do, such as the things Sen. Kennedy has been promising, he will be in trouble.

There are no promises being made by Mr. Nixon, or in behalf of Mr. Nixon, that cannot be kept. There are, in fact, few promises being made. He is saying only he will continue to do things that already are working well and revise programs that have been unsatisfactory, like the farm program.

The voice of experience in politics is speaking in the Nixon campaign. He is letting his opponent talk about the "new frontiers" that always turn out to be the same old frontiers when they're examined.

Our 4-H Leaders

The honors bestowed on Columbiana County 4-H club advisers each year are merited.

These adults who busy themselves nearly 365 days of the year to assist and guide young people in agricultural pursuits, homemaking and righteous living deserve a public accolade, in addition to the certificates they receive for long service.

Because of their counseling, many a boy and girl has continued their education and achieved a career in some vocation that started out as a 4-H club project. And when so many leaders are recognized, as occurred at the county banquet Thursday night, we are confident that the advisers are more than measuring up to the responsible positions they hold.

Recommended Tonic

With autumn putting on its colorful spectacle in the countryside, you don't have to drive far to enjoy the beauty of nature's handiwork as the leaves change colors in varied hues.

Many of Columbiana and Mahoning County's side roads, those away from the heavier traveled highways, offer October sights at their best at this time of the year. The scene can best be absorbed if you'll take a hike through the woods. It's a God-given tonic that will make you forget the cares and turmoil of the day.

Once Over

Congressional committee says there is possibility of putting hospitals into outer space. Hospital rates have been in outer space for last few years, and doctors fees seem to have already reached the moon.

Drug manufacturers and druggists have certainly put medicines in orbit. So nothing by way of altitude in treating the sick would be surprising.

Idea of an outer space hospital, says a congressman in discussing scientific possibility, would be to treat sufferers from heart disease and other serious ailments through outer space radiation and similar influences.

We can't help wondering effect on a heart case if nurse suddenly announced "Don't look now but you're up around the moon." Or looked at his chart and found the notation "Slight fever passing Mars."

It will be years before outer space hospital is developed. Reaction of most people is, "We can wait." They are nervous enough in institutions on solid ground.

There is only an outside chance they will feel better in a hospital-bed floating around the Milky Way and Big Dipper, especially in view of the fact it is difficult to get special nurses now, let alone finding them willing to go into orbit with thermometer, bedpan, hypodermic needle and breakfast tray. Food in many hospitals is so bad it might pollute the upper air. Take it easy, scientists! You're treating the sick into serious relapses.

ART CARNEY is to play F. D. Roosevelt on TV How about Jackie Gleason for Harry Truman?

Broadway drama so far this fall indicates you can get any play produced if its revolting. Scripts should be sent in attached to a detergent.

National Association of Broadcasters have signed up Gov. Collins of Florida as president at a reported $75,000 a year with $12,500 expense account. His acceptance and leap from governor's $12,500 job almost set an Olympic record. Will he get a salary cut if he doesn't profess complete belief in the association's annual pledge to observe code for less violence over airways?

New York is putting out litter cans with gold paint finish. You hate to dirty them up by throwing in anything but the best high grade rubbish.

The U.S. chefs won cooking Olympics. Must be that there were rigid rules barring grinders, pizza pies, invisible hamburgers and chicken pies. (How did we do in the open steak sandwich and beef stew department?)

Can you remember away back when it would have ruined any White House candidate's chances if he insisted on being properly lit up during debates?

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

Victor Riesel

That defector from the Baltika, Viktor Jaanimets, has hurt his captain's feelings and career. Now the "old man" will have to guide the white ship, with its newly painted red and gold hammer and sickle, back to the home port of Leningrad with no chance whatsoever of winning the right to fly a special flag.

This banner would have had on it the legend, "Ship of Communist Labor."

All of Viktor's fellow crewmen would have been able to wear special pins signifying to all comrades that they are "Heroes of Communist Labor."

The flag and the pins are the reward not alone for a perfect voyage but for operating a floating sweatshop.

No American seaman would ship out on a vessel so brutally run. For this I have the word of a U.S. sailor, Eric Joseph, a member of Paul Hall's Seafarers International Union.

After learning that Joseph probably is the only American expert ever to sail aboard the Baltika, I spoke with him.

WHAT WERE the reactions of experienced American seafarer as a passenger aboard the Baltika, nee the SS Vyacheslav Molotov? My friend had gone in and out of Leningrad and Helsinki on the ship last year, before Chairman Khrushchev turned it into a Proletarian yacht.

"When they weren't hustling baggage," Joseph said, "the crew, most of which was made up of women, was painting—mornings, noon and night. As far as working conditions go, the deck gang handled the baggage, and heavy it was, to and from the docks."

"It was clear that no one was paid O.T. watch (overtime). It was anything but a classless society, either for passengers or crew members."

"For the paying guests there first, second and third classes. The crew members had no rights, no grievance machinery and were brutally treated."

The officers' commands are supreme, except for the political ratings. There are Communist party and Young Communist League leaders aboard every vessel.

They are the ones who break the crew into small groups in charge of a political "guide" on shore leave.

THESE POLITICAL police usually are members of a floating group known as the "Standing Production Conference." No American union would tolerate such an outfit. It is part of the so-called Russian union known as the Sea and River Workers.

A "Standing Production Conference" is required in all work units of more than 100 persons, according to a most recent report on Soviet labor.

The task of this proletarian mentor of Red sailors is "to direct all its activities towards insuring efficient working of the unit, fulfillment or over fulfillment of output targets, promotion of socialist emulation, maximum increase of labor productivity and the spread and popularization of progressive work methods and innovations introduced by the best men in production."

This is the speedup. This is the gearing of all work to the strongest, most efficient of workers in each unit.

"Socialist emulation" says simply that under the Communist party, the only criterion is the effort of the weak to match the strong, even if it literally breaks their backs. This is one of the chief reasons for the existence of Soviet trade unions.

THOUGH OFFICIALLY union committees, these "Standing Production Conferences" are made up of some seamen, some union stewards, representatives of the state management trust, and, of course, the Communist party and young Communist League officials.

When a U. S. labor leader visiting Russia recently asked officials of the Sea and River Workers about union membership meetings, he was told: "We discuss the results of socialist emulation and have a report on the fulfillment of the collective agreement . . ."

There are no differentials in working conditions for women. They manned the Baltika until Chairman Khrushchev sent word he wanted a prize crew screened and put aboard the ship. Victor Jaanimets was one of them.

To him 12 and 16-hour shifts and silence in the face of orders from ship officers and ship political police were the routines of life.

This changed when he mixed with freedom on the docks and sidewalks of New York. Then he made a dash for it.

'Rod Angels' Commended
Recently I was helped by one of your local organizations and would like to commend them on their help.

A few weeks ago, after spending the weekend at Guilford Lake, I found that my car would not start as I prepared to return home.

While standing by the car with the hood up and about ready to go look for a mechanic (which I am sure would be hard to find on Sunday), I was greeted by four youths in a passing car.

They inquired to my difficulty and as I explained the situation, they immediately jumped from their auto and started to work on mine. They had it running shortly and when I asked what I owed them, they replied, "Nothing at all," going on to say that this was a service to motorists by their association, "The Rod Angels."

I think the effort of these young men and their organization is very commendable and in my case was very much appreciated.

Khrushchev's Purpose

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Tried to Arouse U.S. Public Against Government

Nikita Khrushchev has defied all the rules of fair play in diplomacy—he has deliberately interfered in a national political campaign inside a foreign country.

By coming to the United States in the midst of a presidential contest and carrying on a sustained attack against the policies of the Eisenhower administration, he has endeavored to arouse the American people to repudiate their own government at the polls.

Mr. Khrushchev knows well that all over the world the American presidential election is being watched by foreign governments and peoples, and that the outcome of the contest is being awaited to learn primarily whether the American people have given a "vote of confidence" or have voted "no confidence" in the present administration.

Mr. Khrushchev in his speeches has dwelt on various aspects of the foreign policy issue that is being debated by the supporters of Vice President Nixon and Sen. Kennedy.

He keeps emphasizing the U2 issue and goes out of his way to embrace Fidel Castro at a time when opposition speakers in the campaign are blaming Communist ascendancy in Cuba on the Eisenhower administration.

Even the dormant issue of admitting Red China to the United Nations was revived by the Soviet premier during his visit here.

He knows full well Democratic party speaker in the campaign have begun to hint that Red China eventually will be admitted and that the United States will soon start appeasing the Peiping government through negotiations that plead for concessions to this country in return for a willingness to admit Red China to the U.N.

AT A TIME where there is discussion of the subject of admission of Red China to the U.N.—the recent vote on which has been referred to by Democratic party speakers as a defeat for the United States—the issue of defending Quemoy and Matsu is brought up by Sen. Kennedy. There is naturally a good deal of confusion about it, and plenty of demagoguery.

The United States has never taken the position that Quemoy and Matsu in and of themselves are strategically important and worth defending by our forces. Nor has vice President Nixon modified in the slightest degree the position taken by the Eisenhower administration, which is that America will defend the off-shore islands only if a military operation is begun that can threaten Formosa.

For, since nobody knows just how far the Red Chinese will go if they attack the islands, the American military judgment has been and is today that it is best not to be explicit about what the United States will or will not do militarily.

As a matter of fact, there have been intermittent bombardments of the islands for the past several years, and the United States has not become involved in any counterattack or defense of the islands themselves.

TO SAY NOW that the islands will not be defended means telling the enemy that it is all right to begin an all-out attack on them and that perhaps the United States is weakening in its determination to defend Formosa, too.

It is also of great advantage to Mr. Khrushchev to have American speakers debating just now whether Quemoy and Matsu are to be defended. It tells the people of Formosa and the people of the Philippines that, if Sen. Kennedy is elected, there may be a change in American policy.

This tends to weaken the alliance in the Far East between the United States, Formosa, the Philippines and South Korea, and has subjected it to new strains, which the press dispatches from those countries have revealed in the last few days in commenting on the American campaign speeches.

Most dangerous of all to the defense policies of the United States today are the Communist inroads to Britain, where the British Labor party indicates now that, if it comes into power, America may be deprived of its nuclear bases there.

This would weaken the retaliatory power of the United States and would be worth a great deal to the Communists in the event of war.

THE MOVEMENT in Britain, inspired by the Communists, started out as a debate merely on "banning tests."

It now has taken on all the aspects of a crusade to "ban the bomb." Meanwhile, the Soviet Union refuses to agree to an inspection system to guarantee its good faith in banning tests.

The Communists make headway when the Western countries are lulled to sleep by cries of "hygiene" and "McCarthyism," which seem to be the customary way to try to stifle process against Communist infiltration in every country in the West.

Mr. Khrushchev may not appear to have gained much by his visit to the U.N. itself, but he has managed to help embarrass the American people in their presidential campaign and, if the Eisenhower administration is repudiated next month with a "vote of no confidence" by the majority of citizens who go to the polls, Mr. Khrushchev will surely claim credit for his part in bringing about that result.

Stock Ownership

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The bill market of the 1950s spread stock ownership far and wide among all the states. It made stockholders out of many in the middle income brackets—and even some in the lower brackets.

But the distribution of wealth around the nation doesn't prove that where the money is there also are the greatest number of stockholders.

One of the big trends in income distribution in the 1950s was the number in the lower brackets who made it into the middle income groups. This has been credited as being one of the big reasons that stock ownership spread widely during that period.

Rising per capita income has been given much credit. (The biggest reason could be that during the 1950s steadily rising prices made stocks alluring to anyone with any money at all to invest.)

But in spite of the general spreading of the wealth into regions with the fastest growth rate, the states with the highest per capita personal income aren't necessarily the ones with the greatest number of stockholders.

In some cases obviously this is because a very small state in size and population can have a large concentration of wealth. But some states among the lowest in per capita income outrank states with higher per capita income in the number of stockholding citizens.

Of the top 10 states in per capita income only five are among the top 10 in number of share owners.

For example, Delaware is the No. 1 state in the income list with $2,946 for each person, according to the figures of the National Industrial Conference Board. But Delaware with 50,000 individual share owners ranks 36th among the states, according to the 1959 census of share owners by the New York Stock Exchange.

Several states with per capita incomes among the lowest in the nation have more stockholders than Delaware. Alabama with $1,409 per person ranks 47th, but has 87,700 stockholders to make it No. 31 on the stock list. And South Carolina with $1,332 ranks 48th in per capita income, but has 63,000 share owners or rank 33rd in the list of stock ticker watchers.

The top 10 in number of stockholders with their per capita income and the income ranking are:

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: You've never had THIS problem before — so sharpen your wits and gird yourself for a toughie.

I was dialing my friend and got a wrong number. The voice on the other end was charming, cultured and interesting.

I couldn't bring myself to hang up. Neither could he. We chatted for about 20 minutes and he asked for my number. I refused to give it but promised to call him again "some time." I called him the following night and twice since.

I confess I'm infatuated with this person although it sounds insane. He says he's 25, unmarried, college educated, gainfully employed and we are of the same faith. I'm 21, two-year college girl, living at home and bored with the local coffee house dips. What shall I do?—WRONG(?) NUMBER.

Dear Wrong (&) Number: If you two are of the same faith, an ideal place to meet is in church. Suggest that he bring a friend or a relative along, and you do the same. If he agrees, it's worth the shot; if he refuses, he's a wrong number and should be promptly disconnected.

Free Spender

Dear Ann: My mother-in-law buys something for my husband, Oswald, every time she goes downtown.

It wouldn't be such a problem if she paid for these items herself but she charges everything to us. He has dozens of pairs of socks that he hasn't worn, boxes of shorts and undershirts and handkerchiefs still in the original boxes.

RESTLESS? — Actress June Wilkinson gets comfortably tangled up in New York while waiting for a plane to Los Angeles. She'll make a movie, "Restless Women." It will be filmed in Mexico City.

We have a tough time making ends met and I break my neck to stay within a budget. Last month I paid out $27 on unnecessary haberdashery. When I suggested to Oswald that he ask his mother to stop this business he said, "She's my mother and I can't insult her."

Why does she do these things and is there a way I can put an end to it without setting off a war? — OVERSTOCKED.

Dear Overstocked: Mama "does these things" because she fancies Junior her little boy, and takes delight in pretending that he still depends on her.

Since you can get no cooperation from Oswald, simply tell Mom that your bills are getting out of hand — no fault of hers, of course, YOU just can't resist buying — so you're closing all charge accounts. Then close 'em.

Date Baiters

Dear Ann: I'm a fellow 17 and that letter about girls phoning guys just to yak hit pretty close to home. Here's how it looks to the guys who get called:

About four or five nights a week I get called by one or two girls. Sometimes three. It's not flattering it's embarrassing. My folks give me a knowing look and I get shook and hate to go to the phone.

The girls who call are usually silly and sometimes I can hear their folks yelling for them to get off. The same girls phone a certain clique of guys and the fellows talk about it. They are considered sort of cheap.

There are only one or two girls I really enjoy talking to. They NEVER call me. I call them. — A WORD TO THE WISE.

Dear Wise: Thanks for The Word. I hope it comes through loud and clear.

Dear Ann Landers: Last Sunday my wife and I attended a wedding. We had to stop at a couple of cocktail parties on the way. I admit I was a little high but I certainly was not drunk.

A very handsome guy (prematurely gray at the temples) was also at the wedding. He got quite chummy with my wife — in fact you might even say he made a pass at her. This guy has been a long-time friend and I didn't think much about it. As I said, I was feeling good and thought it was "all in fun."

After thinking it over, it seems to me he was way out of line. Should I have a talk with him and set him straight? — THINKING IT OVER.

Dear Thinking: I don't know YOUR idea of "feeling good" but I've seen characters who felt so good they couldn't move.

Now is no time to have a talk with a fellow about something you think you saw through blood-shot eyes.

The next time you go where liquor is served try an experiment. Lay off the joy juice and take a good look at what goes on around you. You may quit going to cocktail parties forever.

Favorite Gets All

Dear Ann: There are four girls in our family, all married. Our elderly mother has valuable authentic pieces of early American furniture which are precious heirlooms. Mother has said repeatedly that after her death the pieces should be divided among us.

The eldest girl (Mother's favorite) married best, financially. Her home is furnished with antiques throughout. Our homes are furnished modestly but a few beautiful antiques fit in with any decor.

Last week I was stunned when Mother announced that she is leaving ALL her furniture to the eldest "because she has the home for it."

Mother is old and forgetful and doesn't recall her previous promises. This seems unfair as we would all like at least one heirloom. Have you a suggestion? — JANE.

Dear Jane: Say nothing. If your mother has said "repeatedly" that the furniture should be divided your eldest sister must have heard her say it, as did the others.

If your sister is fair she will divide the heirlooms as your mother suggested in her more rational days. If she's a selfish person who would take advantage of an elderly mother's failing memory, she'll keep everything herself.

Skeleton In Closet

Dear Ann: I'm going to marry a man who has been married before. His first marriage was a matter of honor. After the marriage he found out his wife had been "friendly" with half of his platoon. They were divorced within five months.

This fellow is from out of town and nobody here knows about his past. My folks are very strict and terribly concerned about what people think. I'd feel like a sneak if I didn't tell them. On the other hand it isn't their business, is it? Should I tell them or not? — STYMIED.

Dear Stymied: Tell them. Skeletons have an uncanny way of falling out of closets. When they do, they make quite a clatter. It's most unnerving, when unexpected.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Miller-Wiggers Vows Heard In Winona Methodist Church

The Winona Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Terease G. Miller and David W. Wiggers Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Philip Miller of RD 2, Salem. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiggers of Hawley Ave.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. Earl E. Brooks of Carrollton. He was assisted by Rev. John Capper of the Winona Methodist Church.

Tapers in candelabra lighted the altar setting of palms and white chrysanthemums.

Joseph Redinger of Martins Ferry, an uncle of the bridegroom, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Tell Me Do You Love," "Because," and "I Love Thee. Lloyd Babbs presided at the organ.

Nelson O. Baunach of Salem gave his niece in marriage. Her gown of silk bouquet taffeta and Chantilly lace was styled with an empire bodice and bouffant skirt with chapel train. The scalloped square neckline was enhanced with pearls and sequins. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion and carried her bridal bouquet of orchids with a Bible.

Mrs. Ralph Odey of Salem was matron of honor. She wore a gown of champagne mist nylon over taffeta with a darker hued sash and a Dior bow headpiece. She carried a bouquet of bronze mums.

Miss Barbara Munsell and Mrs. Donald Blasiman, bridesmaids, wore gowns and headpieces like that worn by the matron of honor, and they carried bouquets of yellow mums.

Alhea Miller, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a gown of lime green nylon sheer with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, was accented by a butterfly bow at the back.

Paul J. Wiggers Jr. was his brothers best man, Robert Montgomery and Jerry Hoyt ushered.

Mrs. Miller chose a pale champagne colored brocade dress and gun metal accessories for her daughter's wedding. She complemented her attire with a lavender corsage. Mrs. Wiggers wore a green print jersey dress with green accessories and purple throat white orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the church social rooms. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a bride and bridegroom ornament and decorated with pale yellow roses, Faye Stamp, May Rudel, Mabel Allison and Mary Lou Alexander served.

The 200 guests came from Salem, Cleveland, Poland, Greenford, Martins Ferry, Colerain, East Liverpool, New Castle and Ellwood City, Pa.; and Chicago, Ill.

The bride is a graduate of Salem High School, Class of 1954, and a graduate of Kent State University, is employed as a chemist by the Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago.

For traveling to New England and Canada, the honeymoon destination the new Mrs. Wiggers selected a cream colored knit suit with green and smoke gray accessories, and he wore a corsage containing a white orchid with a yellow throat.

The couple's home address will be 36 N. Jackson St., Waukegan, Ill.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at a dinner held following the rehearsal in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace of Damascus-Berlin Center Road will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open reception in their home from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Planning the observance are the couple's children, Mrs. Linda Ramsey of Bah, O.; Larry Wallace of Garfield; Arlene, Roger and Jacqueline, all at home.

Paul Wallace of Garfield Road and the former Winifred Bohner of Beoit were married Oct. 19, 1935 at the Presbyterian Manse in New Cumberland, W. Va. Rev. J. K. McDevitt officiated. Attending the couple were Mrs. Ora Wallace and the late Glen Wallace.

The honorees have lived most of their married life on the farm where they now reside. Mr. Wallace was engaged in farming until a year ago. He is presently a high lift operator for the Buckeye Coal Mining Co.

The Wallaces are affiliated with the East Goshen Friends Church.

HONORED AT KENT STATE

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. William Elliott

Mrs. William Elliott, 45, of Irondale, died at 5:35 a.m. Sunday at Salem City Hospital where she was admitted Oct. 7 for medical treatment.

Lawrence A. Frost

Lawrence A. Frost, 67, of 564 Jennings Ave. died of cancer at 3:45 p.m. Sunday at City Hospital, where he was a patient since July 14.

Born in Lisbon, Sept. 20, 1892, he was the son of Jesse and Carolyn Millman Frost. In 1917 he married Viola Clark, who survives. A veteran of World War I, he was last employed as a foreman by the Lincoln Machine Co. He was a member of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, of which he was past commander.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Keith Leroy Frost of Fort Myers, Fla., Lawrence Junior Frost of Salem; five grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Jessie Windle of Salem.

1 Dead, 2 Hurt In Mahoning Mishaps

A 34-year-old New Castle man died of a crushed chest following a head-on collision between a car and a semi-trailer on Rt. 224, near Raccoon Rd., east of Canfield, on Saturday.

Dead is Samuel A. Ciccone, 425 Sheridan Ave., New Castle.

Canfield Highway Patrol said the accident occurred about 7:14 a.m. when Ciccone's car, reportedly left of center, smashed head-on into a rig driven by Samuel E. Davis, 28, of Cleveland.

Davis sustained abrasions of the right knee and possible fractured ribs. He was treated and released at Southside Hospital, Youngstown. A three-car mishap Sunday night on Rt. 18 sent two persons to the Southside Hospital.

Injured were Virginia B. Banks, 41, and Andy Bozich, both of Youngstown. The Banks woman suffered possible back injuries and Bozich, a passenger in the Banks auto, a shoulder injury.

Canfield Patrol said the Banks car was attempting a turn from Rt. 18 onto Rt. 534, when it was struck in the rear by a semi-trailer operated by Edwin Savick, 24, RD 1, Polk, O. The Banks auto was knocked into a parking lot where it crashed into a car owned by Jeannie I. Champion, 37, North Jackson.

The accident occurred at 11:55.

(11) and Mississippi (8). As before, the new AP survey combined the hivers of its own veteran political reporters, the judgments of seasoned newspaper analysts, the opinions of political leaders and the results of certain reliable polls.

The material was gathered during the past week and might not reflect the full impact of the growing dispute between Kennedy and Nixon over the offshore Chinese islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

However, it does reflect some effects of the first two Nixon-some observers felt Nixon might Kennedy TV debates.

In Washington State 9 and Wisconsin (12), for example, second face-to-face test. On the have gained on Kennedy in the other hand, Kennedy seems to have benefited in Colorado (6) and Wyoming (3).

The religious issue continues to be an unknown quantity. From some states, there are reports it is slacking off. From others, the word is that Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion is hurting his chances.

In the past two weeks, Kennedy's prospects have looked rosier in some of the Southern states that had looked shaky or worse for him.

The AP survey indicates these states now are considered for Nixon, to a greater or lesser extent: Delaware (3), Hawaii (3), Florida (10), Idaho (4), Illinois (27), Iowa (10), Indiana (13), Kansas (8), Maine (5), Nebraska (16), New Hampshire (4), North Dakota (4).

Also, Oklahoma (8), Oregon (6), South Carolina (8), South Dakota (4), Vermont (3), Virginia (12), Wyoming (3).

Considered for Kennedy, by varying degrees: Alabama (possibly 9 of 11), Alaska (3), Arkansas (8), Connecticut (8), Georgia (maximum of 12, possibly only 8), Louisiana (10), Maryland (9), Massachusetts (16), Nevada (3), New Jersey (16).

Also, Rhode Island (4), Washington (9), West Virginia (8), Wisconsin (12).

ment, too, on prospects for victory.

Nixon and Lodge huddled in a Hartford hotel for the better part of an hour Sunday as they took time off from active campaigning to take a sight on the home stretch of the campaign. Lodge later accompanied the vice president to a conference of high echelon political advisers.

When they came out, Nixon said in answer to a question that he would name his cabinet members on a standard of caliber rather than race or creed. This, he said, did not signify he would—or would not—appoint a Negro.

Lodge had told a Harlem audience last Wednesday night that the next administration, if Republican, would include a Negro in the cabinet. Later, he said this could not be considered as a pledge, inasmuch as vice presidents don't appoint cabinet members.

Reports of the remarks had disconcerted some Southern Republicans.

After Lodge departed for Washington, Nixon spent additional time conferring with campaign managers Leonard W. Hall and Robert Finch. They were joined by 21 others including Secretaries of Labor James P. Mitchell and Interior Fred A. Seaton, Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, Undersecretary of the Treasury Fred C. Scribner Jr. and Lodge's son, George. Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming arrived later in the afternoon.

Kennedy

pressed areas and farm problems that strike the small farmer especially.

The 1960 troubles are real, even if they are not exactly like the depression of the 1930s, he said.

"There may not be Herbert Hoover but there is Richard Nixon," he added. "And sometimes I wish it were Mr. Hoover instead."

Kennedy said "for at least Mr. Hoover cared," adding "at least he tried to do something. But Mr. Nixon says he's satisfied. He says we've never had it so good."

Kennedy said various interest rates have increased by 34 to 95 per cent under the present administration. "It has raised the rate on everything but the air we breathe," he said.

As a result, he said, farmers can't buy equipment, small businesses cannot modernize to compete with big corporations, schools are not built—so that overcrowding and overwork of teachers results—and would-be home owners cannot buy, to the detriment of businesses dependent on construction.

"I oppose rigid management of the money system in any special interest," Kennedy said. He promised, if elected, to strike "a whole-some balance," although he acknowledged this is not an easy task.

Speaking in Southwest Ohio today, Kennedy broke new ground in the state he has visited several times during his campaign. Ohio is a 25 electoral vote prize and one about which Democrats are hopeful.

Kennedy said the United States military program has been a success of its own fat and that Nixon has struck no new course about it. The rate of military growth, he said, is not in favor of this country.

On another subject in his televised interview, Kennedy said he repudiates the general argument that a vote against him is a sign of religious bigotry. But he said he had not seen and therefore was not specifically condemning what was described as a broadsheet distributed by some of his supporters in the labor movement making such an implication.

On civil rights, he said he thinks a president should pick the best men available for the cabinet whether their ancestry was Negro, white or any particular nationality. But he also said that more should be done about bringing Negroes into the higher government posts, including judgeships.

MAN GOES BERSERK

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police used tear gas bombs to rout Richard Spencer, 30, after he went berserk in a suburban Lakewood apartment house Sunday and slashed himself 78 times with a penknife. He finally was subdued by six policemen.

The former Air Force sergeant, a Korean War veteran, was taken to the psychiatric ward of Lakewood Hospital. He suffered multiple cuts of the neck and right arm, requiring 78 stitches.

Castro disclosed that one of his former cabinet members, Manolo Ray, was "one of the little leaders of the counter-revolution." Ray, a bomb expert who fought with Castro against the regime of Fulgencio Batista, was replaced as public works minister late last year by left-winger Osmani Cienfuegos.

Castro admitted concern, however, about the allegiance of the Cuban navy. He threatened to dissolve the force unless it shapes up in thorough revolutionary fashion. He disclosed two big naval installations in Havana and Cienfuegos had been deactivated, along with several warships.

The next state on the itinerary is California, which has 32 electoral votes at stake. Eisenhower will address the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco Thursday evening and speak in San Diego Friday at a luncheon sponsored by the Chula Vista Rotary Club.

Then he will go to the Palm Springs area, one of his favorite vacation spots, for a weekend of golf as the guest of George E. Allen, an old friend.

A week from today, the President will travel just south of the border for a brief meeting with Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos at Ciudad Acuna. It will be their third get-together in two years.

After the meeting, Eisenhower will fly to Houston, Tex., for a motorcade and a speech that will be before a special convocation of students and faculty at Rice Institute in Houston.

He returns to Washington the following day.

Former National

Grange Master Dies

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange for 19 years, died at his home Sunday. He was 82.

Taber was chairman of the board and founder of the Farmers & Traders Life Insurance Co., which has its headquarters here. He was a former director of agriculture for Ohio and, at the age of 56, was elected master of the Grange.

His service as national master of the farm organization ended in 1941.

Taber was an active Republican but had served the national committees of food and farm problems under six presidents, both Republicans and Democrats.

He was born in Mount Pleasant, Ohio. He moved to Syracuse about eight years ago.

have provided loans to communities for public projects to enhance industrial expansion and job opportunities," he said.

He said the Democratic bills were rejected last May by President Eisenhower with the comment that they "would squander the taxpayers' money where there is only temporary economic difficulty."

"I believe that the American people have had enough of passive waiting," the senator said. "I believe they have had enough of the 'too little, too late' approach to the problems of the nation. It is time for vigorous national leadership—a leadership which the Democratic party has given in the past and which we will provide again with Jack Kennedy in the White House and a continued Democratic majority in Congress," he concluded.

Sen. Kefauver was introduced by Rep. Hays. County Chairman Don Gosney served as toastmaster and introduced candidates for state and county offices.

Atty. Guy Mauro of Salem, county vice-chairman, presented token gifts to Sen. Kefauver, Rep. Hays and Gosney. Mrs. Kay Blackburn, county chairwoman, introduced guests and presidents of women's clubs.

The State Automobile Association sponsors the dinner.

CAR THEFT TRIAL CONTINUES

LISBON — Testimony is expected to be completed late today in Common Pleas Court in the trial of Carl Lee Hawk Jr., 20, of Wellsville, charged with car theft.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said the trial of John L. Staherek of East Liverpool, charged with assault with a knife, will begin on Tuesday.

Injuries Send 4 To Hospitals Here

Four area residents are confined to the local hospitals following miscellaneous accidents over the weekend.

In City Hospital are Mrs. Bessie Herr, 83, of 57 Chestnut St., Leetonia, who suffered a fractured left wrist in a fall at her home; Harry Burdick, 23, of RD 1, Columbiana, possible fractured pelvis when he was caught in a grain elevator at his farm home; and Gary Birkhimer, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Birkhimer of Damascus, contusion of the left side suffered while playing football.

Mrs. Herr and Mr. Burdick are reported in fairly good condition. Richard Stark, 15, son of Mrs. Mary Stark of 1822 E. Cleveland St., was admitted to the Central Clinic after sustaining a concussion in the Salem-Minerva reserve football game. He is reported in fairly good condition.

United Fund Drive

Nears Halfway Mark

General Chairman Ralph Martin reported late this morning that the United Fund drive in Salem has reached 45 per cent of its goal of $84,960.

More than $3,000 has been received since Friday, bringing current total to $38,583 as the campaign heads into its third week.

Martin also reported that the Public Utilities team, headed by Ray Stiver, has gone "over the top," turning in 106 per cent of its goal thus far.

Minerva Switches

To Dial Phones

Conversion to dial service at Minerva took effect Sunday without a hitch. About 2,200 phones were involved.

General Telephone Co. spokesmen said Minerva will be a toll center for six area communities.

Seven area exchanges and Minerva changed to seven-digit numbering. Among these exchanges were East Rochester, Malvern, Hanoverton, North Georgetown, Homeworth, Paris and Winona. More than 5,250 phones serve these areas.

Center of Minerva's new phone operations is a modern two-story building on Main St. there. It holds central office switching equipment plus commercial, plant and engineering offices.

TRUCK DRIVER FINED $150

EAST PALESTINE — George Krulik, 34, of RD 2, Lisbon, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated at a hearing on Saturday night before Mayor Robert Harding and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to four days in jail.

Krulik was arrested Friday evening after his beer distributing truck hit the rear of a parked car in the business district. Police said he was attempting to turn into an alley to deliver beer to the Moose Club when the accident occurred.

Don't Deceive Yourself on Health

Most of us get a great kick out of being fooled. We sit bug-eyed while a magician cuts a woman in half, snatches lighted cigarettes out of thin air, produces an American flag out of nowhere and waves it to thunderous applause.

Now, while I enjoy feats of sleight-of-hand as much as my neighbor, I must confess to a complete lack of tolerance for certain types of medical hocus-pocus. Especially when the patient performs in the dual role of performer and audience by fooling himself.

LET ME ILLUSTRATE. I have before me a query from a correspondent who wants to know why she weighs 185 pounds when her bathroom scale is on a rug and 190 when it's on the bare floor. Well, obviously she has a spring scale with which one can perform almost as many tricks as a prestidigitator.

The lady might "prove" the usefulness of a trick diet or a reducing drug by failing to adjust the indicator, shifting weight while standing on the platform, or moving the scale from bare floor to rug.

Another example of self-deceit is that of producing an abnormal and unhealthy reduction in the water content of the body. A temporary loss of 5 to 10 pounds can be accomplished by sweating as a result of too much exercise, sitting in a steam room or taking a Turkish bath.

A SIMILAR false weight loss may result from an exhausting purge produced by a saline laxative such as magnesium sulfate (epsom salts).

And, most harmful of all these medical mistakes is the current fashion of taking mouth doses or hypodermic injections of drugs that drain off body fluids by way of the kidneys. These drugs, of enormous usefulness when body tissues are waterlogged, are grievously misapplied when taken or administered for the purpose of fooling the bathroom scale.

Then again, there are times when self-deceit results from the patient's justifiable desire to respond favorably to the physician's medication or the surgeon's operative efforts.

FOR EXAMPLE, many persons testify to the "lift" they get from the new mood drugs. Yet a study conducted at Seattle's University of Washington School of Medicine failed to demonstrate any "statistically significant improvement" in the behavior or response of senile patients to whom the drug was administered as compared with a like group of patients who received a sugar pill (placebo) of similar appearance.

And, as an even more impressive example of the self-deceit that may result from the noblest of motives, a group of patients who were subjected to a recently described operation for the relief of angina pectoris did exactly as well as, but no better than, a control group who were subjected to a "sham procedure."

For a copy of Dr. Hyman's leaflet "Your Heart: angina pectoris," send 10 cents to Dr. Hyman, care The Salem News, Box 489, Dept. B, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Four Hurt as Plane Crashes Into House

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A single-engine plane stalled shortly after take-off from North Columbus Airport Sunday and crashed into a house. The plane's four occupants were injured but a couple in the house was unharmed.

The pilot was Robert Keller, 28, who was taking the plane up as part of an airshow to celebrate his becoming manager of the airport, the Ohio Highway Patrol said. Dennis Speakman, 29, was going to make a parachute jump from the plane.

Injured with them were Charles Bobo, 46, Keller's stepfather, and James Darvas, 37, a flying instructor. The latter two were admitted to University Hospital which reported them in satisfactory condition. Keller and Speakman were released after treatment. All are from Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tedrick were in the living room of the frame house when the plane crashed through the roof over the kitchen a few feet away. The kitchen was wrecked.

The Cessna 172 hooked onto the roof and hung there. The plane did not burn.

Cleveland Browns Plow Under Dallas Cowboys, 48-7

Bob Mitchell Races For 3 Touchdowns

Ray Renfro Suffers Knee Injury; Subs Play Most of Second Half

DALLAS (AP) — The Cleveland Browns put on their biggest offensive show of the season Sunday in trouncing the winless Dallas Cowboys, 48-7, in the Cotton Bowl.

They scored on passes, runs, a pass interception and a 90-yard kickoff return by halfback Bobby Mitchell that opened the second half.

Their victory celebration, however, was tempered somewhat by a knee injury suffered by Ray Renfro, fleet flanking back. He was injured in the first quarter in a collision with Tom Franckhauser, a defensive back, and sat out the remainder of the game. X-rays are planned today to determine the extent of the injury.

The victory, third straight for the Browns, left them the only undefeated and untied team in the National Football League. However, the New York Giants, who had a 3-0 record before Sunday's 24-24 tie with the Washington Redskins, remain in a percentage tie with the Browns for the lead in the NFL's Eastern Conference.

Except for concern over Renfro's injury, Coach Paul Brown was pleased with the Cleveland showing.

"The defense did a fine job, particularly in the first half," he said. "They kept the pressure on Eddie LeBaron."

Browns Tie Up LeBaron

Pressure of the defensive line proved too much for LeBaron, who gave the Browns considerable trouble during his years as quarterback for the Redskins. His successors, Don Heinrich and Don Meredith, had little better luck.

Mitchell paced the Cleveland attack with three touchdowns to run his season's total to seven. Besides his kickoff return TD, he took a flare pass from Milt Plum for 46 yards and a score and went around his own right end for 30 yards for another.

Fullback Jim Brown went around left end for five yards and a touchdown and Larry Stephens, rookie tackle from Texas, broke through the Dallas blockers to pick off a screen pass by LeBaron and ran 34 yards for six points.

Jamie Caley, who spelled Brown at fullback, and Gern Nagler, the end obtained from Pittsburgh, also got into the scoring act. Nagler grabbed a six-yard pass from Plum for his touchdown. Caley, rookie from Grambling College, swept right end for five yards into the end zone.

Sam Baker kicked the extra point after the first six touchdowns, but his seventh try was blocked. Baker also averaged 50.6 yards on six punts.

Howl Scores for Dallas

Dallas' touchdown in the fourth period was set up by a 41-yard pass from Heinrich to Billy Howl, former Cleveland end. Heinrich then passed 12 yards to Howl for the score.

The ease with which the Browns piled up the score enabled Coach Brown to get a look at his substitutes. Len Dawson played most of the second half at quarterback. Prentice Gautt, former Oklahoma star, relieved Mitchell and led in rushing with 77 yards in 12 carries. Caley also got a good workout.

Following Renfro's injury, Leon Clarke played the remainder of the game at the flanking spot. The receiver obtained from the Los Angeles Rams also will get the call against the Philadelphia Eagles in Cleveland next Sunday if Renfro can't play.

Plum and Dawson completed 14 of 21 passes for 129 yards, while the Cowboys clicked on only 9 of 27 for 100 yards. Plum hit on 6 of 8.

Western Reserve Halted by United

United built up a 22-0 lead in the first half and coasted to a 28-6 victory over Western Reserve Saturday at Sebring.

The win enabled Coach Ray Russell's Golden Eagles to even their season record at 3-3. Western Reserve suffered its fifth setback in six games.

Dan Jenkins tallied two of United's touchdowns on runs of 22 and 26 yards. Paul DeVille raced 35 yards for another score and Jim Sturgeon plowed over from two yards out for his first touchdown of the season.

DeVille and Johnny Hanna tallied the extra points on runs.

Western Reserve's only score came in the third quarter when its outstanding back, Tom Owen, hit paydirt after a 70-yard gallop.

Unbeaten Poland Smashes Louisville

Poland's small but mighty Bulldogs completely outclassed a good Louisville eleven Saturday and chalked up a 46-0 win over the invading Leopards.

Shifty Bill Zimmer carried over three touchdowns for the Bulldogs on runs of 7, 2 and 8 yards. This marked the third time this season that Zimmer had tallied three touchdowns in one game. He has scored 70 points in Poland's five straight victories.

Duncan Ingraham, Chet Pardee and C. Worcester also chalked up touchdowns for Poland Saturday.

The victory for Poland enabled it to take over the Tri-County League lead with a 4-0 mark. East Palestine, the defending champ, is 3-0 in league play. The defeat for Louisville was its first in three league games. The Leopards are 2-3 for the season.

Pittsburgh won 11 of its first 16 games against the Braves during the 1960 baseball season.

BOWLING

Bieber Memorial and Foreman Window Cleaning are engaged in a real battle for first place in the Saturday Nite Saxon Mixed-Up League. Both teams rolled new season three-game highs Saturday at Saxon Lanes.

Bieber's bested Foreman's three points to 1. Bieber had 843-843-796 for a 2484 series compared to Foreman's 833-824-820 for a 2477 total.

Suburban Food Center moved into second place by taking four points over Spack Alum. Sales. Paul & Gene's Sohio Service won 3-1 over Select Dairies and Saxon Lanes moved out of the cellar with a 3-1 win over Sovereign Tool & Die.

Jenny Linder of Sovereign Tool & Die led the women with a 198 single game. She had a 484 series. Kate Pauline of Foreman's had the top series, 503. Her high game was a 194. Hilda Edling of Bieber's posted a 186 single game.

For the men, Simon Spack of Foreman's posted a three-game set of 591 with a 210 high single game. Bill Pauline, also of Foreman's, had a 570 set which included a pair of 194's.

Denny Schmidt of Paul & Gene's Sohio took single game honors with a 214. Dave Kachner of Bieber's had a 121; Bill Edling, a 196; and Henry Heidenreich, a 193.

In the Salem Golf Club Mixed League on Sunday, JoAnne Crawford rolled a 200 game and a 500 series. Oliver Ramsey posted a 503 series and Margaret Stewart, a 194 single game.

The men were led by Bud Shaffer who racked up a 554 set with a single game high of 234. Del Smith posted a 537-189 and Bill McCormick a 470-175. Bob Schaeffer carded a 480 series.

Browns Lead Eastern Division

Redskins Fight Back To Tie Giants, 24-24

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Speedsters Lenny Moore and Bobby Mitchell, elusive packages of swinging hips and flashing feet, are dancing a touchdown jig in the pass-conscious National Football League while driving their teams toward divisional titles.

Moore, former Penn State star now in his fifth pro season, scored touchdowns on runs of 1, 34 and 57 yards and caught a Johnny Unitas aerial for a fourth score as the NFL champion Baltimore Colts blasted the Los Angeles Rams 31-17 Sunday.

Mitchell, onetime Illinois standout in his third NFL campaign, returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown, raced 30 yards for another and took a Milt Plum pass and ran 46 yards for a third score to pace the Cleveland Browns to a 48-7 thumping of the Dallas Cowboys.

Moore and Mitchell now are tied for the League's scoring lead with 42 points on seven touchdowns.

The Colts triumph, their third against one defeat, kept them in a tie for first place in the Western Division with the Chicago Bears, a half-game ahead of idle Green Bay. The Bears kept pace with a 27-10 victory over San Francisco.

The Browns' romp gave them a 3-0 record and edged them ahead of the defending New York Giants (3-0-1) in the Eastern Division. The Giants were tied by the Washington Redskins 24-24 on a touchdown pass by Ralph Guglielmi with 25 seconds left.

The Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 27-14 and the Philadelphia Eagles whipped the Detroit Lions 28-10 in other games.

In the American League, Houston retained first place in the Eastern Division with a 20-0 win over Dallas and Denver kept the top spot in the West despite a 28-19 loss to Los Angeles. New York edged Buffalo 17-13d an Oakland beat Boston 27-14 to round out the program.

Johnny Morris' 61-yard touchdown run gave the Bears a 13-3 lead in the second quarter. A 37-yard scoring jaunt by Morris and Ed Brown's 91-yard touchdown pass to Willie Deweall put it out of reach for Chicago.

Guglielmi, completing 13 of 16 passes while bringing the Redskins (1-1-1) a 17-3 halftime deficit, arched a 23-yarder to Jim Podoley and Bob Khayat kicked the extra point to tie it against the Giants.

The Steelers (2-2) frustrated the Cards (1-3) with a pair of Bert Rechichar field Goals. Tom Tracy's four-yard touchdown run and a 26-yard scoring pitch from Bobby Layne to Buddy Dial which built a 20-0 lead.

Clarence Peaks' one-yard touchdown smash gave the Eagles (3-1) an insurmountable 14-0 margin at the half. Jim Martin's field goal and Joe Schmidt's 17-yard scamper with an interception brought the Lions (0-3) close before Van Brocklin sealed it with a 38-yard scoring toss to Bob Walston.

'Looked Good,' Coach Says

Lou Slaby in Starting Lineup As Pitt Routs West Virginia

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Lou Slaby, sophomore fullback from Salem, was in the starting lineup for the University of Pittsburgh against West Virginia on Saturday and Coach John Michelosen was pleased with what he saw. Pitt won, 42-0.

"Lou looked good out there," said Coach Michelosen after the game. "Lou is a big boy and has lots of heart. He should be seeing more and more action as the season progresses."

There never has been any question about Lou's ability on defense. "He is a tough man on defense," said Vic Fusia, the backfield coach. "He reacts well to every type of play."

At first, the coaches were thinking of switching Slaby to either tackle or end but then decided to leave him at fullback for this year. There is no doubt now that he will be playing that position for the next two years.

There is an excellent chance that Slaby will be first string next year because Jim Cunningham, the regular fullback, will graduate in June.

Slaby carried the ball for a first down on the West Virginia 14 early in the game. A few plays later, the Panthers scored. Slaby carried the ball five times for 20 yards.

Captain Mike Ditka congratulated Lou after the game. "Lou hits that line and everybody on both teams knows it," said Ditka. "He's a tough kid to handle."

The Panthers travel to Fort Worth this week to meet TCU. Slaby will start if Cunningham hasn't recovered from the flu. Otherwise, Lou will run with the second unit.

On either team, Slaby will prove to be a big factor in any success Pitt might have in the last five games, his coach says.

Beery Leads Salem Jayvees To 22-0 Win

Sophomore quarterback Bill Beery tallied two touchdowns to lead the Salem reserve football squad to a 22-0 victory over the Minerva Jayvees Saturday night at Reilly Field.

Beery's first TD came on a 60-yard punt return. He raced 50 yards from scrimmage for his other touchdown.

The Quakers' fleet junior half-back, Dave Edling, scampered 25 yards for the first touchdown of the game.

Beery scored two extra points on a run and junior Brian Houser, who has been converted from quarterback to end, tallied Salem's other two extra points on a pass from Beery.

Dick Stark, 120, sophomore quarter in the game. He was shaken up on a play, but appeared to recover and got back in the game. Later in the evening he complained of loss of memory and was taken to the hospital where it was determined that he suffered a concussion.

Two weeks ago another Salem reserve griddler, George Esterly, suffered a similar injury in a varsity game and will be lost to the team for the season.

The Salem Reserves, with a record of one win and one tie, play next Saturday at Wellsville against the Tiger Jayvees.

Bill Krause Captures Grand Prix Race

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Bill Krause's Birdcage Maserati had to be towed from the track, but that was after the Long Beach Calif., driver had won the Riverside Grand Prix for sports cars Sunday.

Krause, 27, made no pit stops during the 203.4-mile grind and his car ran out of fuel just after he got the checkered flag. He covered the distance in 2 hours, 13 minutes, 10 seconds for an average speed of 91.5 miles per hour. Krause took home $7,000 of the $25,950 pot.

Purdue's Win Is Top Upset

Mississippi Expected To Keep No. 1 Ranking

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

The heat's on Mississippi, but Ole Miss is playing it cool in a shot at its first national championship in college football. Halfway through the campaign, the Rebels still are unbeaten, and haven't had any particular trouble in any of their five games.

That situation may change this weekend, however, when Mississippi plays Arkansas at Little Rock, where Ole Miss has lost two of three in the past eight years. But Mississippi certainly did nothing to hurt its No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press poll last Saturday night.

The Rebels rolled up 494 yards running and passing while beating Tulane 26-13. Quarterback Jake Gibbs again was the Rebel rouser, pitching three touchdown passes to end Johnny Brewer and running six yards for the other score.

While Mississippi was stretching its two-season winning streak to nine, second ranked Iowa (4-0) defeated Wisconsin 28-21, third ranked Ohio State was spilled 24-21 by Purdue and fourth-ranked Syracuse, the defending national champ, beat off stubborn Penn State 21-15 for a 15-game streak.

Navy and Missouri, continued to press the leaders. The Mizzies, ranked No. 5, won their eighth in a row by whipping Air Force 35-3 in the first meeting of the two service academies. Missouri (5-0), ranked No. 6, beat Kansas State 45-0.

Seventh-ranked Baylor (4-0) beat Texas Tech 14-7 as Ronnie Bull hauled a screen pass 50 yards for one TD, then went one yard for the other.

Clemson, rated eighth, was upset for the second year in a row by Maryland, 19-17. And ninth-ranked Kansas failed in its bid to overcome still-dangerous Oklahoma in the Big Eight, coming off with 13-13 tie in the Sooners' conference opener. Minnesota, rated No. 10, made a bid to move up by rocking Illinois 21-10. Only the Gophers and Iowa are unbeaten in the Big Ten.

Syracuse and Navy have another chance to pick up backers this weekend. Syracuse plays at West Virginia. Navy plays at Penn.

Among the contenders for the top 10, Washington (4-1) goes against Oregon State without All-America quarterback Bob Schloredt. The Huskies' ace suffered a broken collar bone in a 10-8 victory over UCLA that tightened Washington's grasp on the Big Five lead. Michigan State (2-1-1) goes against Indiana, after knocking Notre Dame 21-0. And Tennessee (3-0-1) meets Chattanooga, after beating back Alabama 20-7.

Canfield Blasts McDonald, 40-0

Jack Raver scored three touchdowns and Bill Acott added two others as Canfield trampled McDonald 40-0, Saturday at Canfield.

McDonald trailed only 6-0 at halftime but Canfield added eight more points in the third quarter and blew the game wide open with 26 markers in the final period.

Raver's touchdowns came on runs of 5, 64 and 48 yards. Acott scampered 35 and 12 yards for his touchdowns. Acott has now scored at least one touchdown in each of his team's last five games. He has 68 points for the season, 14 more than Raver.

Canfield's other touchdown Saturday was scored by Stephenson on a 54-yard run. Acott and Arnold each scored extra points on runs.

Canfield is 2-0 in Turnpike Conference play and 4-2 for the season. McDonald has a 1-0 mark in Inter-County League play and 2-4 overall.

Greenford Absorbs Sixth Setback, 28-6

Greenford's Bobcats suffered their sixth straight defeat of the year as Springfield Local turned the trick, 28-6, Saturday afternoon at Greenford.

The win was the first for Springfield against five setbacks. Springfield has dropped three consecutive games in Turnpike Conference League tilts.

Greenford is 0-6 on the season and 0-2 in Inter-County play.

Jack Rauch was the big gun for the victors as he scored four touchdowns on runs of 30, 5, 31, and 4 yards.

Jim Allen added two extra points for the winners.

Ken Wellendorf tossed a touchdown pass to Phil Johnson for Greenford's only score. The play covered 62 yards.

Both elevens played to a 0-0 standoff in the first half. Springfield broke the game wide open in the third stanza with 16 markers. The victors added 12 more in the final frame.

Greenford chalked up its six pointer in the fourth period.

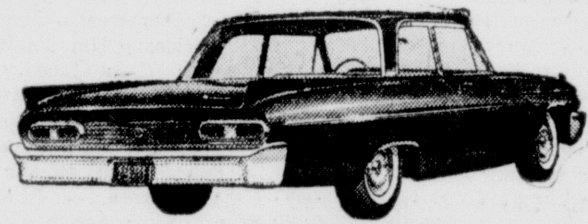

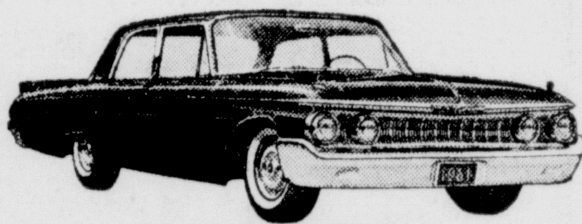

Next Saturday Greenford will play host to Western Reserve in an Inter-County tilt. Western Reserve is 0-3 in league play and 1-5 overall.

North Lima will invade Springfield Local next Saturday in an independent game.

Frank McDaniel Tallies Five Touchdowns

West Branch Snows Under North Lima Gridders, 50-6

By BOB JULIAN

Led by Frank McDaniel's five touchdowns and the passing of Chuck Wilson plus an alert defense, West Branch High School's highly touted gridiron machine rolled over the North Lima Zippers, 50-6, Saturday afternoon at Reilly Stadium.

Coach Ralph Zurbrugg's powerhouse went into the tilt scoring 38 points per game and the Zippers were tallying 32 markers per contest.

West Branch is now 5-1 for the season and 1-1 in Turnpike Conference play.

North Lima suffered its second loss in six starts and is 2-0 in Inter-County League competition.

This encounter was expected to be a very tight battle. Both clubs had been rolling over their opposition with ease. However, the experts failed to consider the exceptional running of McDaniel, the recovery of two zipper fumbles.

With 1:08 left the score was knitted at 6-6.

In the second period the winners exploded for 30 points to put the game out of the reach of the spirited Zippers.

McDANIEL SCORED his second TD of the afternoon as he romped 39 yards up the middle. The fleet back outdistanced the entire North Lima defense. Wilson scampered over for the extra point.

At the 9:22 mark, West Branch's Tom Griffiths jumped on another zipper bobbie on the 44 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage

Wilson took to the air and tossed his second scoring pass as he caught McDaniel in the open. Wilson ran the two pointer and West Branch had a 22-6 margin.

After receiving a zipper punt the Warriors moved to the North Lima three yard line. A 15 yard punt led to Warrior scores, and the talented arm of Wilson.

NORTH LIMA took the opening kickoff and promptly marched through the West Branch defense with no trouble at all. The Zippers moved the ball 74 yards in eight plays with Roger Cooley going 20 yards, to score the first six pointer of the day. The try for the extra point was no good and the Zippers led, 6-0, with 9:22 left in the first period.

With about three minutes remaining in the initial stanza West Branch's Tom Eddy recovered the first of two fumbles that led to Warrior scores when he pounced on the piskin at the Zipper 10 yard line. After three plays into the line, Wilson faded back and hit McDaniel with a five yard loss for paydirt. The try for the extra point was no good as Gary Birkhimer was out of the end zone when he caught Wilson's heave.

ally moved the piskin back to the 18. Again Wilson took to the airways and in two passes he connected with McDaniel again for a nine yard tally. The extra point was no good and with 4:20 remaining West Branch led, 28-6.

North Lima got the ball for two plays before McDaniel leaped into

Beaver Local Romps 52-6 For 6th Win

Beaver Local did nothing to harm its No. 18 ranking in the state when it rolled to a 52-6 win over South Side, Pa., Saturday on the Beavers' home field.

Ronnie McLaughlin and George Gaydos each tallied two touchdowns for Coach Jack O'Rourke's powerhouse. McLaughlin scored on a 19-yard run and 40-yard pass from talented quarterback Mike Kienbara. Gaydos registered on runs of 4 and 10 yards.

Wayne Hickman, 118-pound senior, recorded his first touchdown of the season when he galloped five yards to paydirt. Other Beaver Local TD's were notched by Dale Beagle on a 25-yard pass and Gary Williams on a 33-yard aerial. Both of these TD passes were thrown by the versatile McLaughlin.

The Beavers chalked up their sixth straight win by scoring 22 points in the second and fourth quarters. They were blanked in the opening period. Their other TD came in the third period.

McLaughlin's two touchdowns and six extra points Saturday raised his area pace-setting scoring spree to 104 points.

The Beaver's next game is Saturday at Fairfield-Waterford.

Barons Divide Pair With Rochester In NHL Action

By The Associated Press

The Springfield Indians were handed their second defeat of the young season, but padded their lead a bit in the American Hockey League after weekend play that gave the rest of the standings a fast shuffle.

The Indians split two games with last place Providence, losing 6-4 Sunday night. Rochester jumped past idle Quebec into second place by dividing two with Cleveland, beating the Barons 5-2 Sunday on a bill of second period goals by Billy Saunders.

Buffalo, which started the Saturday-Sunday play in a tie at the bottom with Providence, completed a sweep over Hershey by whipping the Bears 6-1. That lifted the Bisons into a third place tie with Quebec and Cleveland.

Springfield, now ahead by three points, had started the weekend two points in the lead before Saturday's 6-2 victory over Providence. In the other Saturday games, Cleveland beat Rochester 4-2, and Buffalo defeated Hershey 3-2.

Fairfield-Waterford Blanks Salineville

Gary Slaven recorded touchdowns on runs of 25 and 50 yards to spark Fairfield-Waterford to a 24-0 victory over Salineville Saturday at Leontia.

Larry Peppel tallied the Rebels' other touchdown when he plunged over from the one yard out. Fairfield-Waterford picked up two points on a safety when Baker's punt went out of his own end zone. Larry Webber scored four extra point on conversions. The Rebels tallied 14 markers in the first quarter and added 10 in the final frame.

Fairfield-Waterford now has a 3-2 record for the season, including a 1-2 mark in Inter-County League play. Salineville dropped its fifth straight game since opening with a 36-6 win over Jackson-Milton.

Lowellville Records Fifth Straight Shutout

Lowellville stretched its winning streak to five and kept its goal uncrossed in the process as it blanked Jackson-Milton, 26-0, Saturday at North Jackson.

The Rockets haven't lost a game in the last two years. A tie with Goshen Union (West Branch) was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect slate last year.

Lowellville was paced Saturday by Larry Rotunno who plunged one yard for a touchdown and passed 30 yards to Bob Pratt for another. The other two touchdowns were scored by Marty Kamenski on a 34-yard run and by Frank Notareschi on a three-yard plunge.

Kamenski accounted for the two extra points on a run.

Lowellville is 5-0 for the season and 2-0 in Inter-County League play. Jackson-Milton is 1-1 against Turnpike Conference competition and 2-4 for the season.

Woody Hayes Upset With Officials in Loss

By FRITZ HOWELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's Buckeyes, reeling from an unexpected 24-21 setback by Purdue for their first loss of the campaign, run into another rugged foe this week.

Wisconsin's Badgers, 1959 kings of the Big Ten, will furnish the opposition before a capacity crowd here. Nipped 28-21 by a last-minute Iowa touchdown for their first defeat Saturday, the Badgers will be on the rebound with an offense which has averaged 26 points per game.

Coach Woody Hayes declined to allow newsmen in the Buck dressing room after the loss to the Boilermakers, and in a terse statement said he couldn't understand a couple of calls by officials which played a key role in the defeat. He was expected to elaborate on that at today's press luncheon.

The Ohio and Wisconsin losses left only Iowa and Minnesota unsullied in the Big Ten race. The

AFL Fan Shortage Blamed on High Ticket Prices

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two Oakland Raider owners contend cheaper tickets are the solution to the fan shortage at American Football League games.

An estimated 11,500 showed up at San Francisco's Kezar Stadium Sunday to watch the Raiders beat Boston 27-14. In their other two games at Kezar, the Raiders drew 12,703 and 8,021.

"It's too late to do anything about it this season, but next year I think we'll quite definitely have to drop out prices," said Don Blessing.

He added, "it's obvious that people aren't ready to pay the same price ($4.50) as for the 49ers (San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League)."

Blessing said the club would think in terms of about $3 for a reserved seat next year.

Ed McGah, another co-owner, said if the club would agree, "I'd like to see the price cut in half to $2.25."

Thick Insulation for Cooling May Not Cost a Red Cent

If you are planning to build a house with air conditioning, or to install a cooling system in an existing house, properly installed insulation may not cost you a cent, says Andrew C. Lang, author of books about the home.

"It's a fact," says Lang, "that mineral wool insulation in thick enough amounts so efficiently keeps heat outside in summer that it's possible to install a smaller, lower-cost cooling system than you'd need without insulation or with just a little of it."

OFTEN, LANG POINTS out, the money you can save on a smaller central air conditioning system is at least as much as the complete cost of the insulation.

Adequate insulation also reduces the cost of operating the system. It can save as much as 40 percent annually on heating-fuel bills.

"The cash saving isn't the only value of insulation," Lang adds. "You get a bonus in comfort, since mineral wool keeps room temperatures at a more even level all year 'round and cuts chill drafts in winter."

Some "do's" and "don'ts" recommended by Lang for an air-conditioned house are:

DO INSIST ON THICK insulation. Recommendations for mineral wool are at least 6 inches in the ceiling, a minimum of 3 inches in walls, and 2 inches in floors over areas such as crawl spaces, attached garages, and porches.

Do insist on proper installation. A qualified contractor has the know-how and equipment to do the job right.

Do deal with a qualified air conditioning contractor who has a good reputation. His skill in installation is just as important as the brand of equipment he sells.

DON'T FORGET THE importance of shade and orientation of the house on its site. Trees, high fences, and awnings on the east and west sides of the house will help keep the house cool. If you're building a house, insist on wide overhangs on the south. Place the house on the lot so that broad sides face north and south, and large window areas are away from the late afternoon sun.

Here's The Answer

Question: Can you tell me what to do about squeaky floors? We have just recently purchased a home that was about 6 months old when we bought it. It has wide subflooring and hardwood over that in the bedrooms, and plywood over subflooring in the kitchen and living room. There is no basement, just crawl space under the house.

ANSWER: If there is room in the crawl space to get at the floors from the bottom, drive wedges between the beams and the flooring in the areas where the squeaks are. If not, drive nails into the floor from the top so that they go through both thicknesses into the beams. When finishing nails are used, drive them at angles so that they form V's inside the wood. When modern threaded nails are used (usually when the floor is to be covered), drive them straight into the wood.

QUESTION: The exterior of our one-story ranch house, 5 years old, is stucco with portions of the lower half clapboard. The interior has plastered walls. The heating unit is oil with a blower system. Our problem is damp walls in clothes closets, in cupboards and behind large pieces of furniture placed next to outside walls. How can we correct this condition?

ANSWER: First, see if your heating unit has a humidifier attached to it. If so, have it disconnected. When using any appliances which let off steam or humidity, open a window while they are being operated. If none of this works, you will have to install small ventilating louvers (about the size of a half dollar) in 3 or 4 of the affected areas. All this advice is on the assumption that the dampness is not coming from the outside, such as during rainy periods, in which case you will have to find the source of the entry of water.

CHOICE OF YOUTH — The wide, airy living-dining area in the rear of this compact, ranch-style home makes it a favorite with young families. Its 1,288 square feet of living area includes three bedrooms built around a center hall. The architect is Lester Cohen, Room 75, 117 West 48th St., New York, 36, N. Y. and the plan is HA160C.

Modern Day Family Room Borrowed From Early Romans

"Family rooms" and "family living" have become virtual household words today. No thought of architectural design would turn out a residential design now without a family room or its counterpart under another name.

Home builders speak knowingly of the "trend" toward more family living. The phrases pop up in the proud jargon of the owner of a modern ranch or split.

And nearly everyone associated in one way or another with family housing at one time or another has regarded the words perhaps as a representing an exciting and wholly new way of American life.

THE FAMILY ROOM, however, is as old as the ancient Roman empire. It was known then as the "atrium."

It first appeared as the central room of an early Roman house, with a hole in the roof to let out the smoke.

As Roman houses developed in complexity and the kitchen and hearth were removed to other positions, the atrium remained as a court—serving as a formal reception room and as the official center of family life.

The atrium has exerted strong influence on architecture in many lands and through many eras. Its

Here Is a Cure For Sick Ceilings

If you have some problem ceilings—badly cracked, criss-crossed by exposed pipes (as in many basements), or too high for a room's dimensions—your solution may well be to install a plank and beam ceiling or one made simply of paneling. Even if your ceiling can pass muster, a wood ceiling can add distinction to virtually any room.

The Western Pine Association points out that the home-owner has help close at hand if he discusses his particular problem with a local lumber supplier, for there is a wide variety of lumber to choose from, and different installations suit different needs.

For example, a simple paneled ceiling might be best in a small room that lacks height. A plank and beam installation, on the other hand, will often lend solidity and character to a room in which the ceiling is high.

Still a third possibility is the use of decking. This is thicker than paneling and, with its added strength, it can act as the underside of the floor above or support a roof if major remodeling is being undertaken.

Whatever the home-owner's choice of ceiling style, he will find that lumber from the western pine region is economical, readily available, and easy to work. These 11 species also respond beautifully to whatever finishing treatment an individual may prefer.

Handyman Finds Many Uses Around House for Linseed Oil

One way to spot a real pro among handymen is to notice how many uses he finds for linseed oil. Linseed oil is available in both raw and boiled form. Raw linseed oil can take up to four days to dry after applying it. The boiled product dries quickly, is often used in with turpentine or other thinners.

Built-In Units Aids Tidiness In Children

Pine shelves and built-ins can do much to make and keep a child's room attractive and neat. The imaginative design of varied storage units will tend to catch a youngster's interest, and will help to teach tidiness.

This does not mean that with cabinets, cupboards, wardrobe-dressers, chests, or open shelves the parents' problems automatically will be solved, but psychologists agree that children look to adults to put order and discipline into their lives. The Western Pine Association points out that this is the kind of bedroom storage that will appeal to children and point the way toward neatness.

Parents can win half the battle if they design units with the child in mind and include a few "gimmicks." Examples might be a lidded bin for galoshes and football shoes; a chest for games and toys; open shelves for books, dolls or "treasures"; a wardrobe unit for hanging clothes and drawers of different sizes for shirts, blouses, belts and other things; and a desk at which the child can study or follow a hobby.

Because they are readily avail-

LEGAL NOTICE FROM

CITY OF SALEM
ORDINANCE NO. 609020-37
ENFORCED BY THE
Salem City Ordinance, Regulating
Closing Out and Distressed Merchandise Sales and Declaring an Emergency.
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SALEM,
STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION I.
As used in this Ordinance, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

A. "Closing-Out Sale" means any offer to sell to the public, or sale to the public, of goods, wares, or merchandise upon the implied or direct holding-out or representation that such sale is in anticipation of the cessation, discontinuance, and termination of a business at its present location.

B. "Distressed-Merchandise Sale" means any offer to sell to the public, or sale to the public, of goods, wares, or merchandise upon the implied or direct holding-out or representation that such sale is being conducted under any one, or combination, of the following circumstances in anticipation of the cessation of business:

(1) That such sale is being conducted because of, or in avoidance of, insolvency, calamity, casualty, or misfortune suffered by, or about to be suffered by, the person conducting the sale;

(2) That such goods, wares, or merchandise were acquired from another person conducting the sale as a result of, or in avoidance of, insolvency, calamity, casualty, or misfortune suffered by, or about to be suffered by, the person from whom the person conducting the sale acquired the goods, wares, or merchandise;

(3) That such goods, wares, or merchandise were acquired by the person conducting the sale as a result of, or in avoidance of, insolvency, calamity, casualty, or misfortune suffered by, or about to be suffered by, a person who previously held the goods, wares, or merchandise;

(4) That such goods, wares, or merchandise were acquired from a person who has terminated business, or is in the process of terminating business;

(5) That such goods, wares, or merchandise were acquired from another source of the person conducting the sale at which he has terminated business or is in the process of terminating business.

Without limiting the generality of the above, distressed-merchandise sale shall include any sale advertised or conducted specifically or by substance to be an "Adjuster's Sale," "Adjustment Sale," "Alteration Sale," "Assignee's Sale," "Bankruptcy Sale," "Bankrupt-Stock Sale," "Benefit-of-Creditor's Sale," "Benefit-of-Administrator's Sale," "Benefit-of-Trustee's Sale," "Building-Company Sale," "Creditors' Sale," "Debtors' Sale," "End-of-Business Sale," "Executor's Sale," "Final-Days Sale," "Fire Sale," "Fire-Stock Sale," "Forced-out-of-Business Sale," "Insurance Sale," "Liquidation Sale," "Last-Days Sale," "Lease-Expires Sale," "Liquidation Sale," "Loss-of-Lease Sale," "Mortgage Sale," "Out-of-Business Sale," "Receiver's Sale," "Removal Sale," "Removal-of-Business Sale," "Save-Us-From-Bankruptcy Sale," "Save-Us-From-Debtors' Sale," "Save-Us-From-Water-Damage Sale," or any similar sale.

C. "Goods" means any goods, wares, merchandise, or object of property capable of being the subject of a closing-out sale or a distressed-merchandise sale.

D. "Inventory Value" means cost price of goods, wares, or merchandise offered for sale.

SECTION II.
(a) No person shall advertise or conduct a closing-out sale or a distressed-merchandise sale, or any goods at a sale advertised or represented by any means to be a closing-out sale without first obtaining a license to conduct a closing-out sale from the Mayor, nor continue a closing-out sale after the expiration of such license.

(b) No person shall advertise or conduct a distressed-merchandise sale, or any goods at a sale advertised or represented by any means to be a distressed-merchandise sale without first obtaining a license to conduct a distressed-merchandise sale from the Mayor, nor continue a distressed-merchandise sale after the expiration of such license.

(c) Any person desiring to conduct a closing-out or distressed-merchandise sale shall make a true and correct inventory of such goods as may be prescribed. Such application shall be verified by the applicant before a person authorized to administer oaths and shall contain the following information:

(A) The name and address of the owner of the goods to be sold at the sale and the name and address of the operator of such sale, if other than the owner.

(B) The name and address of the person from whom the goods were purchased or acquired and the terms, conditions, and date of such purchase or acquisition.

(C) A description of the place where such sale is to be held.

(D) The nature of the occupancy of the place where such sale is to be held, whether by lease or otherwise, and the effective date of termination of such occupancy.

(E) A full and complete statement of the facts regarding the proposed closing-out sale, including the reason why such sale is to be conducted, and the dates of commencement and termination of such sale.

(F) The means to be employed in advertising and publicizing such sale including the contents of any proposed advertisement or publicity.

(G) A complete and detailed inventory of the goods on hand or on order and not yet received to be sold at such sale as disclosed by the applicant's records which inventory shall include only goods purchased by the applicant for resale on bona fide orders without cancellation privileges and shall not include goods purchased on consignment or goods ordered in contemplation of conducting such sale. That inventory shall be filed with the inventory filed with the county Auditor in that year for personal property tax purposes by more than 15 days prior to the filing of the application shall be prima facie evidence that such purchase or addition was made in contemplation of such sale and for the purpose of selling the same at such sale. No person or persons shall disclose the contents of such inventory except as may be necessary in the administration and enforcement of this ordinance.

(H) A statement of the total retail value of the inventory submitted in accordance with paragraph (g).

(I) An itemized listing of any goods on hand at the premises of the sale which are not to be included in the sale including any goods on order but not yet received.

SECTION III.
Upon the filing of an application for a closing-out or distressed-merchandise sale license, the Mayor shall appoint a Commission of Sale and who shall make an investigation of the facts contained in the application and of the conduct of the sale to effectuate the purpose of this Ordinance. If it appears to the Commission that the facts contained in the application are true, that the proposed sale is in compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and that the applicant has been paid the Commission shall approve the issuance of the requested license to the applicant and the Mayor shall forthwith issue said license. The Commission shall also investigate and report its findings to the Mayor within five days after the application for license is filed with the Mayor.

SECTION IV.
An applicant for a closing-out sale license or a distressed-merchandise sale license shall submit to the Mayor with his application for such license, a bond in an amount equal to one-fourth of one percent of the inventory value of the goods to be sold at said sale, but in no event shall such bond be less than $25.00. Any person submitting an application for a renewal of a closing-out sale license shall submit with such application a bond in the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

SECTION V.
No closing-out sale or distressed-merchandise sale license shall be issued if the Commission finds any of the following facts or circumstances to exist:

(1) That the inventory contains goods not purchased by the applicant for resale on bona fide orders without cancellation privileges;

News of Our Neighbors

Damascus

The Mabel Barss Womens Society of Christian Service of the Damascus Methodist Church joined the WSCS Circle in a meeting at the church recently. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. C. G. Long.

Ellis Cline was guest speaker, explaining the workings of the voting machine. He also spoke on the local issues which will be on the ballot in November. Lunch was served by Mrs. Roy Whinnery and Mrs. Paul Buttermore Jr. of the Mabel Barss Auxiliary and Mrs. G. R. Morton and Mrs. Edgar Gardner representing the other group.

A covered dish dinner will be a feature of the next meeting of the WSCS circle at the home of Mrs. J. Fred Jose, Nov. 14.

The Mabel Barss Circle will have a toy party at the church, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waffer were guests of the Saturday Night Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Hoopes. Scores in "500" were awarded Mrs. Alton Dunbar and Elgie Boyle for "High" and to Mrs. Don Cameron and Alton Dunbar for "low". Lunch was served by the hostess. Next meeting Nov. 12 will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Boyle.

The Home Builder's Class of the Methodist Church will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hendricks Monday at 8 p.m., with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hans co-hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Wolf and sons Gary and Tim spent a recent weekend camping at Racoon State Park in Pennsylvania.

The Butler Rural Advisory Council of the Farm Bureau Association will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pemberton Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gologram are the parents of a daughter born in Alliance City Hospital. The baby weighed 8 pounds and 5 ounces and has been named Gail.

Robin. She has a sister, Sharon, two years old.

Miss Susan Stanley in company with Miss Wanda Heck of East Palestine and Miss Kathryn Duceo of Leetonia are spending a two weeks' vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Patmos and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bardo and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denny of Salem were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bardo.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bardo entertained at a gathering recently honoring Mr. and Mrs. James Rhoades and family, who are being transferred from Buckroe, Va., to Sault Saint Marie, Mich., by the Boeing Air Craft Company. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hall of Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall and Enfield Wood of here.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Elton Hall of Columbus. Mrs. Foster Hall has returned from Columbus where she assisted in the home of her son.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rhoades and daughters, who are moving from Buckroe, Va., to Sault Sainte Marie, Mich., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall for several days enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall entertained at a family gathering honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Rhoades and family Sunday. Others in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hall and daughters of Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hall and daughter of Sebring and Enfield Wood. The group were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hall of Alliance Friday evening, and guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hall of Sebring Saturday evening.

The Esther Zinn Missionary Auxiliary of Friends Church will be entertained by Miss Patricia Griffith Monday evening, with Mrs. Gerald Steer co-hostess.

The West Branch Band Mothers

Club will meet at the high school Monday evening.

Lea Hoopes of Winterhaven, Fla., and Clarence Hoopes attended the funeral of Mrs. Orris Crew of Johnston, Ohio. Lea Hoopes spent the weekend with his father Clarence Hoopes here and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hoopes Monday.

A book of biographical sketches entitled "Forgotten Saints", written by Anna Talbott McPherson of Damascus, has been accepted for publication in 1961 by the Jondervan Publishing House, Grand Rapids, Mich.
